

We are extremely concerned that you are considering lifting the cross-ownership ban between newspapers and television stations in the same geographical area. Further media consolidation clearly will not serve the public interest. In a democratic society a diversity of perspectives is fundamental; more consolidation of the ownership of the news media into the hands of a few will further narrow the array of voices the public can turn to for information. Please do not lift the ban on cross-ownership.